MRS. A. E. PARDUE DIED IN TEMPLE FRI.

For several weeks Hamlin people had known that Mrs. A. E. Pardue was in a serious condition in a hospital in Temple, Texas, where she had been taking treatment, but all efforts to improve her health was of no avail and death came at 7:00 A. M. Friday, November 10th.

Mrs. Pardue had lived in Hamlin for thirty years and was admired and loved by a host of people of this community.

She was born in Arkansas, January 29, 1883, and was 56 years, 9 months and 11 days of age. Her maiden name was Marie S. Green. She was married to the late Dr. A. E. Pardue at Granger, Texas, in 1903.

Mrs. Pardue was preceded in death by her husband, seven months ago. Her surviving family consists of one daughter, Mrs. Holly Toler of Hamlin, and one son, Arche E. Pardue of Stamford. There are four grandchildren. One sister, Mrs. Ozella Snodgrass of Amarillo and one brother, John Green, of Olney, survive.

Mr. Pardue was a devoted companion and mother. She was one who spent life in a quiet, modest, unassuming manner, gentle and kind and sympathetic. She was a member of the Methodist church from early girlhood.

Funeral services were conducted at the Methodist Church Sunday afternoon at two o'clock, in charge of the pastor, Rev. H. W. Hanks and Rev. Henry Littleton of the Baptist Church. Preceding the services, the body lay in state at the church from 1:00 til 2:00 P. M. to permit a long line of sorrowing friends to pass the bier. Numerous floral wreaths from friends and loved ones bore proof of their esteem and love.

Interment was in Hamlin East Cemetery, by the Barrow Funeral Directors.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Farrow, of Lubbock were here Sunday to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Farrow. Mrs. Farrow accompanied them home for a visit and will also visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd in Southland, Texas.

TAX PAYMENTS OF SCHOOL EXTRA GOOD

Tax collections for the month of October were extremely good due to the fact that all who paid their taxes during that month received a three per cent discount on their 1939 taxes. However, two per cent discount will be allowed to all tax payers who pay during the month of November, their 1939 taxes.

If you have overlooked paying your school taxes and wish to take advantage of this discount you must pay the 1939 taxes during this month. A one per cent discount will be allowed on all taxes paid in December and no discount will be allowed after the first of January.

This is one of Hamlin's finest young families and Dalhart is lucky in getting them as citizens. For the past three years, Mr. Dean has been traveling for a clothing company, and before that he was head salesman for the Bryant Link Co. in Hamlin.

PIPERS LOSE SECOND FOOTBALL GAME

The Hamlin Pied Pipers suffered their second defeat of the season at the hands of the powerful Munday Moguls on the Munday field last Friday night. The Moguls ran the score up to 26-0 with their long runs and heavy plunges through the line. Although outclassed and out-weighed by their opponents, the Pipers played a hard game.

Outstanding players for the Pipers were Nicholson, Sowell, Ivy, Dean and Barrow. During the game, Nicholson, Sowell and Dean received injuries and perhaps the three will be out of this week's game.

Starring for the Moguls were Jack Pippen, C. Pippen, Yancey and Kitchens.

This Friday night the Pipers will go to Albany to play the Albany Lions. Although a crippled team, the Pipers will put up a fight.

MR. GARRETT IN EASTLAND OFFICE MOST NEXT WEEK

Due to a previous engagement made before his return to Texas, Congressman Clyde Garrett is due to be out of town the remainder of this week. He has just caught up with the work which accumulated during the change in his office and has been able to see most of the people who wanted to see him. However a large number have indicated that they have matters to discuss and he has been unable to see them so far this week.

He is planning to be in his office at Eastland the first three or four days of next week and will then see any who have any matter to discuss with him. After that week it is his plan to be out over the District visiting all the towns of the District. However, he is planning to make an effort to be in his office in Eastland on both Mondays and Tuesdays of each week to see those who want to come to the office and discuss matters with him.

Girl Gets Homesick 10 Blocks From Mom

She's away at college just ten blocks from home, but that doesn't keep Leta Underwood, Texas State College for Women sophomore, from getting homesick. She lives in the dormitory, writes her family once a week, and isn't going home until Thanksgiving because she made a bet with her brother that living in Denton wouldn't keep her from "going away to college."

Mr. and Mrs. Elva Hines are happy over the arrival of a fine 9 1/4 pound girl. This lady's name is Annie Joyce. Her birthday? Information did not reveal that, so already she is concealing her age.

Mrs. O. L. Taulman and little son, Ottie Loyd Jr., of Lubbock, were here Saturday and Sunday visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Green.

COTTON GINNED TO NOV. 1, 20,782 BALES

Jones County retained her lead in this section of Texas in cotton production. The Census Department reports as of November 1, that Jones County had ginned 20,782 bales. This is compared with 32,152 same date in 1938.

Jones County borders other good cotton producing counties and when the adjustments of cotton ginned in other counties are made, it will be likely that part of the total and final amount will be in the neighboring counties' favor. While in a few cases the other counties get some of the Jones County production. Last year Jones County ginned a little over 37,000 bales. Perhaps the total for this season will be less than 25,000.

Cotton picking is slowed up in many localities because of the green bolls yet in the fields. The farmer desires to wait till it all opens before going over the last time.

While talking of cotton, it is in order to note that some rains have fallen in parts of the county. In the Hawley-Lueders sections wheat is looking fine for the season. But in the north and west parts of the county but little rain has fallen and but little wheat is up yet.

According to statistics released by the department of commerce, the West Texas area of 19 counties for ginned cotton to Nov. 1.

Number of bales of cotton ginned in the counties totaled: Callahan, 2,506; Coke, 1,515; Coleman, 11,831; Dickens, 8,399; Eastland, 533; Fisher, 14,972; Hockell, 14,503; Howard, 13,573; Jones, 20,732; Knox, 12,916; Martin, 9,037; Midland, 1,365; Mitchell, 15,244; Nolan, 9,093; Runnels, 14,754; Scurry, 12,519; Stonewall, 3,185; Taylor, 15,118; and Throckmorton, 504.

MORE MEN ARE WANTED IN NAVY

NAVY RECRUITING IN FULL SWING

The U. S. Navy Recruiting Station at Abilene, Texas, has unlimited vacancies and is enlisting men between the ages of 18 and 31 and since the Navy is in the first part of its large expansion program the quota for West Texas is unlimited. Men who desire steady advancement with good pay are urged to apply at this station for full information, and for enlistment.

Ira A. Dean, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Dean, Rt. A., Hamlin, was enlisted in the U. S. Navy at the U. S. Navy Recruiting Station, Dallas, Texas, Nov. 8 and transferred to the U. S. Naval Training Station, San Diego, Calif., where he will receive three months training as an apprentice seaman before transfer to a ship of the U. S. Fleet, or to one of the Navy's numerous trade schools. Before enlistment at Dallas Dean had made application and passed preliminary examinations at the U. S. Navy Recruiting Station at Abilene.

Miss Lucille Newsom, a student in McMurray College, spent the past week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Newsom.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Young report that their son Olen has been assigned to the San Diego Naval Training Station and that he is already taking instructions out there.

Rev. H. W. Hanks, pastor of the Hamlin Methodist church is attending the Annual Conference in Lubbock this week. The report of assignments of ministers for next year will be made Sunday afternoon. It is generally believed that Rev. Hanks will be returned to the Hamlin church.

Mmes. H. O. Cassle, Tom Teague, R. E. Johnson, Earl Smith, Travis Dean and Arlie Cassle attended the meeting of Texas Federated Club Women in Wichita Falls Wednesday.

R. H. CAMPBELL SPEAKER

HI SCHOOL P-T A MEETING

The High School P-T A met Thursday afternoon, Nov. 9, at the High School auditorium. Miss Harrell's capable choral club furnished music, after which R. H. Campbell discussed the topic "The Farmer Has a Son." He made an unusually interesting talk, stressing what rural youth is doing to meet the problem presented by modern life and how their problems differ from those of city youth, also enumerating their many contributions to American life.

After a short business session the meeting was adjourned.

The date for next meeting will be the second Thursday afternoon in December, High School auditorium, at 3:45.

REVIVAL ASSEMBLY OF GOD CHURCH

An old time Holiness Revival is now on. Evangelist Mrs. Clara Newton from Tahoka, Texas, is doing the preaching. We invite every one to attend. Come hear the old time gospel. What we need in these closing days and days of depression is to go back to the Bible and back to God.

ASSEMBLY OF GOD CHURCH Located 2 blocks each on Stamford Highway and 2 blocks north.

COUNTY AGENT NEWS ARTICLES

A meeting will be held at the Willow Creek school house Monday night, November 20, at 7:30. The purpose of this meeting will be to present a picture of the situation as found by the Farm and Ranch Survey sheet. This meeting will represent the ranching areas of the county and it is hoped that all people in this area will attend and assist in formulating plans for a land use in this area.

A meeting will be held at Boyds Chapel Tuesday night, November 21 at 7:30, for the purpose of presenting a picture of the situation as found by the Farm and Ranch Survey sheet. This meeting will represent the sandy loam soil type area and all people within this area are urged to attend this meeting to assist in formulating plans for a land use program.

Miss Olga Jo Baker, of Walters, Oklahoma, was in Hamlin this week end visiting her sister, Mrs. Don Gould. Miss Baker, daughter of G. W. Baker, M. D., returned home Sunday evening to protect a ten year school record of no tardiness or absences in the Walters schools.

The Red Cross Roll Call in Hamlin started in full swing Monday morning and the soliciting committee, Mrs. Bill Rountree and Mrs. Clinton Barrow, have proved that they can do a good job in boosting Hamlin's Red Cross Membership above that of many years.

Their work will continue several days and by the end of the month they should have Hamlin's quota of 200 members. This is far more than was enrolled last year, when only 75 names were gathered.

It will be the proper thing for one to volunteer their membership fee in the Red Cross if per chance the committee fails to see you. This may be done by handing your one dollar either to the Postmaster, the Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce or the Editor of the Herald.

A full report of the membership will be published later in the month.

LION DELEGATES GO TO

COLORADO CITY MEETING

Headed by President Dr. Joe McCrary, the local Lions club was represented at the quarter-annual Lions Club zone meeting last Thursday night at Colorado City.

Dr. McCrary reported to the gathering that the Hamlin club not only had increased its membership, its treasury, and paid all debts, but had as usual carried a full share of the work for community betterment. The local club had a report as good as any other in this zone, and better than most of them, due to the persistent work of its officers and wide-awake members.

Accompanying Dr. McCrary to the meeting were: Lions John Howard, Jr., James Dunlap, Kurt Schoemann, and Dr. Don Gould.

IF HALF of what one can hear over the radio and read in the daily papers is true, it is enough to distract the mind of any peace-loving citizen.

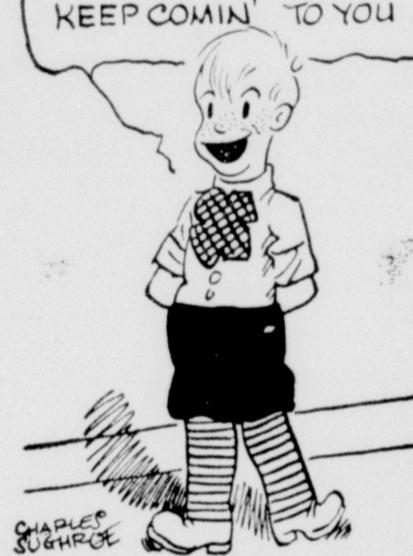

ONE REPORT from an airplane manufacturer, who is employing 13,000 men and turning out TWO and one-half airplanes per day, says that if improvements go on till September 1940, by then the United States, plus England, plus France, will all together be able to produce as many airplanes as Germany.

THIS MAY BE a form of boosting the airplane manufacturer's business—maybe he is correct. If so, it is saying mighty little for the three greatest nations on earth or over estimating the ability of Germany.

PERHAPS GERMANY gets more work out of her men than the 13,000 do in this country . . . in fact it seems small production when it takes 13,000 men to produce less than three planes per day.

CHURCH MUST ADVERTISE

If a preacher wants to be anything more than an undertaker for his church he must advertise. The church must move with the current or be left behind.

Why not make the printing press the agent of Christ? There is nothing unsacred about printer's ink—the first book ever printed was the Bible.

In thousands of homes today the newspaper is the only Bible. It is the best sounding board for the minister's message.

The church today must make just as strong an appeal to popular support as a merchant, for failure to draw is just as fatal to the church as to the merchant. Is it more important that men should know where to go to buy hats than where to go to get salvation?—Rev. C. H. Martin, St. John's Methodist Episcopal church, New York City.

Deep-Water Swimming

Provided there is sufficient water to float the body, the depth of water makes no difference to the swimmer, its buoyancy being the same in both cases. The popular belief that swimming is easier in deep water is incorrect, though perhaps the mental effect has some influence. A person swimming in shallow water knows that on the least fatigue he may stop swimming and stand on the bottom; in deep water he knows he cannot do this, but must exert himself to swim well and under these circumstances it may seem easier to him.

Suffering Women Welcome "Build-Up"

A simple method is saving many women much pain and discomfort! It is based on the knowledge that women's headaches, nervousness, and cramp-like pain often are symptoms of functional dysmenorrhea due to a weak, run-down, undernourished condition. That so many women find relief from these painful symptoms through the CARDUI "build-up" is easy to explain. By improving the appetite, assisting digestion and assimilation, CARDUI helps to build physical resistance against periodic pain. Thousands of women also report that CARDUI, taken just before and during "the time," helps to ease periodic pain.

Flying Fryers

Hawaiian chicken growers are now having live chicks from the Santa Clara (Calif.) valley sent to them by the flying Clippers. Transportation and feeding for each chick is about $1. The chicks are shipped when they are one-day old. The expense, it is said, is little more than it would be to ship eggs that way for hatching. The Clippers have been equipped with heaters in the baggage compartments with a capacity for 700 chicks on each trip.

Stork Misses Deadline

A stork headed toward Eugene, Ore., failed to make the "deadline" for the local press. The papers announced that a son had been born to Mr. and Mrs. Burton Willis before going to press. The next day they explained that twins were born and that the second one didn't arrive in time to catch the previous day's edition.

ONE OUT OF EVERY FOUR ADULTS HAS—

Sinus Disease

According to leading doctors "sinus trouble is one of the most prevalent diseases of today. This dreaded and severely painful disease is caused by and follows the COMMON COLD." All kinds of serious complications besides sinus infection follow the common cold. America's Public Health Enemy Number One, the common cold germ wages its attack to pave the way for such serious illnesses as bronchitis, pneumonia, tuberculosis and other serious health-wrecking diseases. Frequently cold infection extends into the ear or mastoid.

HEAT YOUR ENTIRE HOME FOR YOUR HEALTH'S SAKE

DURING the common cold months, or winter season, it is especially important to take every precaution to protect your health. Quick changes of temperature should be avoided. Sudden changes of temperature, such as occur when going from a warm room into a cold one, make it easy for you to "catch cold." For your health's sake, and to obtain the greatest value from the fuel you use, heat your entire house and provide adequate ventilation during the short winter season.

More tidings from California, the "Through-the-Looking-Glass" land.

In Los Angeles, you drop a penny in a slot and out comes one cigarette. When you buy a whole package, the sales places the pack in a machine, pulls a lever and hands them back to you, with the corner neatly torn to enable you to remove the smokes.

Newsboys aren't numerous; you help yourself to a paper and drop the money in a container.

"Don't write to the folks back."

home; send them a record of your voice—only 25 cents," say a sign. And you can hand the home folks even more of a thrill by spending a quarter and having any headline you want set up and printed at the top of what looks like a front page of a Hollywood newspaper, some such "streamer" as "Joe Zilch" — that's you—"Elopes with Greeta Grabo."

Romance? Here's a sign, "I make violins."

Reality? A few blocks away, another sign, "We sell bullet-proof glass."

Attention, Fort Worth: Los Angeles has a Casita Manana (Little House of Tomorrow).

There are theatres that show nothing but news-reels—(What no Mickey Mouse?) and other theatres that stay open all night. (When do they sweep out and find the lost gloves?) And most of the theatres show double features, the titles sometimes producing surprising results as: "Our Leading Citizen," "The Man They Couldn't Hang."

And, in between features, the lights come on and, apparently from the sky, voices boom, giving the latest news flashes. Also audiences applaud a particularly good bit of acting or singing on the screen.

More queer names of California brands of gasoline: Nitro, Silver Gull and P. D. Q.

There was no boozing whatever at the UCLA-California game. That was news; all the papers made special mention of the fact.

Traffic in Los Angeles is fast—even faster than in Austin, where they make—even if they do not always observe—the laws.

The pedestrian is always right, though sometimes dead—in which case, he is dead-right.

Traffic signals at the most important corners are a bell, lights and a semaphore—all three. It's like the man who wore suspenders and a belt, too—he wasn't taking any chances.

It's quite a thrill to ride on top of a bus. You climb an unbelievably narrow and twisting stair, then make your way on the swaying top to a seat. The rush of the air and the gleam of the sunshine and the view of trees, buildings and sky are worth the extra effort and the risk of a sprained ankle — especially if there are no seats below.

The transportation system is highly complicated; like Gaul, it is divided in three parts—interurbans, buses and street cars.

Interurban fares depend on distance. Street car fares are 7 cents and bus fares a dime, except I've found one street car which charges a dime and one bus which charges 7 cents. Nobody knows when you can get a transfer and when you can't.

You just ask the conductor for one. But even if he issues one, it is quite likely that the next conductor won't accept it. It is all delightfully informal.

Swinging back to Texas topics: The State Land Commissioner is asking bids for oil leases on submerged land belonging to the State School Fund. He is asking a flat price of a certain number of dollars per acre and the lease then goes to the company that offers the most royalty. Royalty is not cash; royalty is paid out of the oil—"if" and "when" found.

And the Commissioner isn't even requiring the company that gets a lease to drill at all. What good is high royalty if a well isn't drilled?

But suppose that the company is kind enough to drill and the well turns out to be a dry hole, what good is high royalty in a duster? Three-eighths or five-eighths or even eight eights of nothing is still nothing. And the taxpayers are the losers.

Psychology to Assist Drivers

Tests by University Prove Safety Factor Can Be Increased.

BERKELEY, CALIF.—Applied psychology may yet solve the problem of chronic automobile traffic violators, as has been demonstrated by tests made here for the past two years.

The psychological driving test has been perfected by Dr. C. E. Brown, head of the department of psychology at the University of California, working in conjunction with E. D. Fletcher of the state department of motor vehicles.

The tests were carried out in the usual research manner of comparing the results attained with one group of drivers which had taken the tests and another group which had not.

The results as obtained from a group of 97 of the state's worst traffic violators showed a drop of 63 per cent in major and 40.6 per cent in minor violations for the group as a whole.

Proved Two Ways.

A similar select group of chronic and dangerous violators remained untested. These continued to show an increase in their violations.

For the two years in which the tested group showed a steady decrease in the number of violations they committed, the untested group had 557 convictions for traffic violations as against only 164 convictions for the tested drivers.

In addition to these tests on chronically bad drivers, similar tests also were made on a group of truck drivers of a large corporation which lent its men for the experiment.

Variations in their driving efficiency were measured in terms of accident frequency before and after testing.

Following the administration of the special tests, the records of the tested drivers improved even more.

Rapid Improvement Shown.

A group of untested good drivers from the same company, used as a control group, experienced more accidents after the testing date; although all of the drivers, both tested and untested, were considered safe, cautious and capable.

The conclusions from the two years' of experiments are that the tests made better drivers out of good ones and materially improved both the technique and the caution of the poor drivers.

An extension of the test also was made on drivers who possess talents and others who were rated as just ordinary or poor.

One hundred and forty-four of these were tested and compared with a similar group of untested drivers.

During the two years of the test, the tested drivers had 85.5 per cent fewer accidents than the untested group.

Hill Families Losing Ground in California

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, CALIF.—California's hill population is rapidly declining, according to Jan O. M. Broek, assistant professor of geography at the University of California.

"The passing of the old hill family and many of its descendants," he said, "is due to the decline in lumbering and range operations, decline in the birth rate, the competition of valley and rural communities.

"These combined with the fact that California has a low birthrate as compared with the country as a whole, have brought about the phenomenon of lower population in the uplands, while population in the lowlands is increasing."

As a result of this situation, he declared, a high number of schools in the hill country have been closed, not because of the establishing of consolidated schools for several formerly independent districts, but because the number of children has so decreased that even the required minimum of five for each district cannot be maintained.

"The situation has become so marked," he said, "that certain counties in the hill districts are obliged to depend on migration to maintain their present population."

Three in Family Become

Mothers on the Same Day

COVENTRY, ENGLAND.—The "three Wilkinson sisters" of Coventry all their lives have been accustomed to doing things together.

Now that they are married they have continued the habit, for they gave birth to baby sons on the same day. The mothers are Mrs. Mavis Sutton, 25 years old; Mrs. Joyce Holland, 24, and Mrs. Doris Waters, 26. Mrs. Waters is really the aunt of the other two, being their father's sister, but all three have been reared together and known as sisters.

They went to school together, to church together, and were married together.

6,000 Alligators on View On Island Off Florida

The St. Augustine, Fla., ostrich-alligator farm has for many years been among the outstanding tourist attractions in the South. Located on beautiful Anastasia island, the farm contains the world's largest collection of live alligators numbering more than 6,000, and a large exhibit of live ostriches.

Although young in comparison to the city's famous historical landmarks, it is one of the oldest establishments of its kind on this continent. The collection was started by Felix Fire and George Reddington, several years prior to the beginning of the Twentieth century, says the St. Augustine Record. It was shown for some time without charge at old South Beach, near the site of the new fishing pier, when tourists flocked there to enjoy the amusements offered at the pavilion. At that time sightseers were transported to this popular resort in a two-car steam trolley. Running usually at half-hour intervals, the trolleys were nearly always filled to capacity.

As interest grew in the unusual collection, Mr. Fire and Mr. Reddington decided in 1901 to concentrate their efforts on the development of an alligator farm and operated it from that time as a commercial enterprise. The exhibit then included about 40 large 'gators. In 1921, when the collection had grown to several thousand, and the site at South Beach was found to be inadequate, the farm was moved to its present location on Anastasia island, about two miles away. The collection of marine treasures and other curiosities which formed the nucleus of the present museum was moved also.

They went to school together, to church together, and were married together.

The man at the theatre was annoyed by the conversation in the row behind.

"Excuse me," he said, "but we can't hear a word."

"Oh," replied the talkative one, "and is it any business of yours what I'm telling my wife?"

PITY THE HUSBAND

A young woman recently applied to one of the local radio stations for a position as a singer. They gave her an audition and she was so bad all the technicians went to lunch. The girl noticed the strained expressions around her.

"I know I can't sing," she confessed. "But I'd be willing to pay for it, if you'd let me sing on Tuesday nights."

"Well, just why are you so anxious to sing over the air?" asked the long suffering tryout man. "Well, my husband and I have quarreled," the girl explained. "He always listens in Tuesday night to this station. I just wanted to ruin the evening for him."—Stray Stories Magazine.

Land Commissioner is asking $100 an acre in cash and if a fellow comes in and offers $1,000 an acre in cash, the Commissioner will not accept it. Does that make sense?

Under the circumstances, wouldn't it be better to lease the land to the company offering the most cash on the barrel-head for the State School Fund?

Otherwise, isn't the Commissioner "gambling" with the taxpayers' land?

You've heard of "salted" gold mines but did you ever hear of a salted oil well?

Mayor Hall Walker of Ranger tells an amusing story of one.

The first test drilled at Ranger was on the Walker farm and young Hall worked on the well, at first as a roustabout and then as a tool-dresser.

Out of respect for religious considerations in the little town, no drilling was done on Sunday. So, one Sunday afternoon, an idea for a joke occurred to Walker. Fuel oil was being used to fire the boiler and Walker dipped a rag in this oil, then dropped it in the hole. Next day, when the boiler was run, a "rainbow" appeared on the slush-pit. News spread that the well had hit a showing of oil and Walker chuckled until he heard that men were getting ready to pay real money for leases. He decided the joke was going too far, so he told what the "rainbow" really was.

As things turned out, the test hit a heavy flow of gas later on and finally blew itself into a big oil well.

Look before you shoot, the Texas Game Department warns. It might save a life.

Arctic People Use Cathedral

Worship in Small Edifice Constructed by Native Labor at Aklavik.

AKLAVIK, NORTH WEST TERRITORY.—Far up beyond the Arctic circle, on the barren shores of the Arctic sea, stands the most northerly cathedral in the British empire, recently dedicated by the Most Reverend D. T. Owen, primate of all Canada.

Situated at the mouth of the vast Mackenzie river, waterway to the north, the little cathedral is in some ways reminiscent of the days when such towering piles as Cologne, Strasbourg and other famed cathedrals were built.

For Aklavik cathedral, perhaps no monumental edifice such as the cathedrals of the Old World, was in truth built with love by the hands of those who worship in it, Eskimos and Indians. With a white carpenter supervising, all work was done by the natives, who crowd into it each Sunday for the three services.

Furs Their Only Wealth.

At the dedication the natives brought with them the only wealth they know—furs. As they trooped into the cathedral, clad in tribal regalia, the head of each native family came forward and placed on a pile near the door a fresh muskrat skin as an offering.

The pile of skins, symbolic of the faith of the natives, was blessed by the Rt. Rev. A. L. Fleming, Anglican bishop of the Arctic. Two natives, Fred Lester, an Eskimo, and Jim Edwards, an Indian, also participated in the services. Both are studying for the ministry and are lay readers.

Services at the cathedral are held in three languages—English, the Tuktoo tongue of the Loucheau Indians and Eskimo. Each Sunday for miles around the flat, barren country surrounding the cathedral is heard the somber tolling of the quarter-ton bell in the tower. A strange sound to be heard in the silent northland, it brings the Sabbath and the passing of time to a land that only a short time ago knew neither God nor the meaning of the word time.

To the Eskimos and the Indians it is something new. To the furred Royal Canadian Mounted police on duty in the post, to the white doctors, trappers, traders, and other emissaries of empire it brings a touch of home, perhaps a little French-Canadian village or a small town on the vast prairies. Or to some, perhaps, the sound of a similar church bell tolling in a little far-away English country village.

Native Children in Choir.

The cathedral choir is faithful in service, attending practices as well as the thrice repeated Sunday services. Composed entirely of native children, it is directed by a few white teachers.

Hanging inside is a large painting delivered at the dedication services by Miss Violet Teague of Melbourne, Australia. It depicts in terms of the savage northland the birth of the Christ-child and the presentation of gifts by the Three Wise Men. Bundled in furs, the Mother and Child are shown receiving the gifts of pelts from the wise men, the "Epiphany of the Snows." Two reindeer stand in the background, while a "Mountie" watches, holding a pair of Eskimo dogs in leash.

Kipling wrote 45 years ago that "There's never a law of God nor man runs north of '53.'" Aklavik cathedral has changed this. The scarlet clad mounted police have long since brought the law of the British empire to Aklavik. Now the law of God is there.

Foreign Paintings Kept

In United States by War

NEW YORK.—Because of the international situation foreign museums which have loaned paintings to the Masterpieces of Art exhibition at the World's fair have asked exhibit directors to keep the paintings until further instructions are sent.

Cabled requests to that effect have been received from directors of the Louvre, the National Gallery of London and the Rijksmuseum of Amsterdam.

Pictures in the art exhibit from these three museums represent $2,500,000 worth of art.

Perry T. Rathbone, director of the exhibit, has informed other lenders that no shipments will be made either now or at the close of the fair, without specific directions.

"We have no objections to retaining custody of the foreign pictures as long as the owners may wish," he said.

Historical Tidbits Are Found in Records Survey

BOSTON.—Factual tidbits uncovered by research workers for the federal historical records survey of the WPA:

Galloping a horse on the streets of Boston 277 years ago was unlawful, punishable by a fine of three shillings, fourpence. It was felt that "violent riding" would endanger the lives of children.

A license to practice medicine, issued by Ferdinand and Isabella to Diego Vaeza in Loba, Spain, in 1517, is one of the prized possessions in the private collection of Lee M. Friedman, Boston attorney.
